.SUSTAINABILITY

Interior designers often build in existing structures. md showcases projects, personalities and innovative products that breathe new life into buildings.

.MATERIALS

Walls and floors, wallpaper and paint – the large-scale canvas of interior design. What requirements must surfaces fulfil? What kind of wear and tear must they endure, and how should they be designed accordingly?

.ARCHITECTURAL PSYCHOLOGY

What is it that makes a space feel the way it does? md interviews architectural psychologists, highlights trends and shares hands-on guidelines for working with lighting, acoustics and colour design.
